

Samples of 20 Wives and Husbands as Seen in News of the Day

On the magazine pages of The Evening World Miss Nicola Greeley Smith has a series of articles on "Twenty Husbands," and Barton W. Currie on "Twenty Wives." Here are stories of various wives and husbands in the news of to-day:

Both Bride and Groom Sorry for Marriage That Took Place at 2 P. M.

The romantic marriage of John D. Smyer, Jr., son of a retired lieutenant in the United States Navy, and Miss Edna Anna Leader, chorus girl in Eddie Foy's "Earl and the Girl" company, which was celebrated at South Orange, N. J., at 2 P. M., on Aug. 10, 1908, is a fair way to be annulled. Both parties are willing to sever the bonds.

Proceedings began a few days after the ceremony by young Mr. Smyer on the ground that he was not only under age, but at the time of the marriage in no condition to understand what was going on. His bride defended the suit on the ground that he knew perfectly what he was doing and had urged her to the ceremony.

Although both complainant and answer

Widow Admits Secret Marriage, Thereby Losing $500,000 Fortune

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—Mrs. Carrie Derby Wayne has lifted the shroud of mystery in which she cloaked her secret marriage to Herbert N. Wayne, the wealthy broker, and casting aside all hope of acquiring the property to which she is conditionally an heir, declared to-day:

"I married Mr. Wayne for the same reason that any other woman should marry a man—because I love him. I don't see why the public should be so dreadfully interested if we wanted to keep the wedding a secret."

And in these words Mrs. Wayne saw

Trained Nurse to Wed Preacher Whom She Brought Back to Health

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 14.—Miss Elizabeth Tierman, trained nurse of this city and Rev. H. B. Vanderborg, of Middletown, have announced that they are to be married. The Tierman family have declared there will be no wedding if they can prevent it. They are Catholics. The Rev. Mr. Vanderborg is an Episcopalian.

A year ago he had typhoid fever. Doctors said there was no hope. Miss Tierman came on the scene and the clergyman began to improve at once. Even in his delirium he grew worse if the pretty nurse left his side.

His convalescence was so slow his

This Husband Plays Pinocle for $10; Won't Give His Wife 10 Cents

ST. LOUIS, July 14.—Mrs. Nora Chalfant, a brunette with liquid brown eyes, gave Judge Kinsey a detailed description yesterday of "the husband who doesn't care." She is suing for a divorce from her husband, Alfred E. Chalfant, an insurance man, now in San Diego, Cal.

"He wouldn't kiss me," Mrs. Chalfant declared, her eyes filling with tears. "He said that sort of thing was silly."

Killed His Wife Because She Spent 90 Cents on a Gown; Then Himself

ST. LOUIS, July 14.—Just as a Magyar gypsy, in Hungary, twenty years ago, prophesied, Mrs. Eva Martini was shot and killed by her husband, Max Martini, in this city. Martini then committed suicide.

Although his wages were ample for the support of his family Martini was known as a man of miserly disposition.

Wright's Marriage to Daughter Of a Scientist Turns Out Wrong

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 14.—Mrs. Edna I. Wright has been granted a divorce from E. R. Wright, a New York broker, said to be wealthy, on the ground of desertion and cruelty.

Mrs. Wright's father, Prof. T. S. O. Lowe, of Pasadena, who realized the

FIREMEN FALL UNCONSCIOUS AT A CELLAR BLAZE

Three Companies Overcome
by Smoke Dragged Out
by Fire Patrol.

Smoke came in such volumes from the cellar of a big tenement house at No. 180 Sixth street at 2 A. M. to-day that men of Engine Companies No. 28 and No. 26 and of Hook and Ladder Company No. 11 fell unconscious in the suffocating place, and would have perished had not Fire Patrol No. 7 galloped up. The men on the fire patrol dashed into the cellar and dragged the unconscious firemen out.

A temporary hospital was established in a soda-water store across the street, and there the unconscious men were brought around, and then twenty of them were sent back to quarters.

The fire started in the wooden of the basement. When it was discovered it was burning furiously and the hallways were so filled with smoke that the twenty families on the five upper floors could not reach the street except by the fire-escape.

When the first engines reached the house the men dashed into the cellar. Then came the hook and ladder. Fifty or more persons were brought down from the escapes, and then the men from the hook and ladder missed the firemen from the engines. They went in search of them, only to fall unconscious among the them on the cellar floor.

The loss to property was not more than $500.
